

YOUR STRENGTHS

List below the 5 strengths from the Clifton Strengths assessment (www.gallupstrengthscenter.com)
and/or the 2 most important roles from your StandOut report (www.standout.tmbc.com):

Which parts of the description of your strengths do you identify with? Write the keywords which are relevant for you below:

Show the information about your strengths to a friend, colleague, partner, your manager. Write the keywords which they recognize in you below:

YOUR STRENGTHS: POTENTIAL PITFALLS

List the potential pitfalls of your strengths below:
what happens when you exaggerate your strengths or take them too far?

What are the signs that your strength has turned into a pitfall?

How do you restore balance?

Which tips from the Clifton Strengths 'action guides' are you going to use to align your work-life more closely to your strengths?

YOUR STRENGTHS: BEING COMPLEMENTARY

Nobody is perfect and together you achieve the best results.

Use the pieces of the puzzle below to write the names of some people around you who would be a great fit with your strengths.

For example, colleagues, friends and family members.

Write down in a few keywords how their qualities seamlessly complement yours.

